LINDBERGH CITES AVIATION OPPORTUNITY IN AMERICA

Lead Over Europe Declared to be Possible With Ample Funds for Experimental Work

This is the sixth article by Capt. Lindbergh, written exclusively for the Los Angeles Times, in conjunction with the New York Times and associated newspapers.

BY CAPT. CHARLES A. LINDBERGH

LONDON, June 1. (Exclusive)—One keen disappointment of my European experiences has been the inability to go all over Europe to study the latest developments in aviation.

There is no doubt that the United States has a good deal to learn about aviation from Europe. Military aeronautics have, as everyone knows, been more largely developed over here than at home, and one glance at any chart of Europe's air lines shows that we are well behind in the extent of commercial aviation.

I have observed that this advance really owes its origin to Europe's having developed much more successfully than we did. There is no denying the fact that, then, from the start, government encouragement of aviation, both military and commercial, has enabled Europe to keep the lead over us.

Over here, however, the government does a development in aviation along with the government departments take hold of it and push it quickly and efficiently. We do not get that sort of action in the United States.

But this very system of subsidies, which on the one hand is the great strength of European aviation, seems to me to constitute also an inherent weakness when a comparison of the old world and the new. We do not have subsidies. Aviation does not get as much support as it should, perhaps, from Washington. That means in the United States it all depends on individual enterprise and on competition. We are forging ahead, if slowly, and it stands to reason that if, under our lack of subsidies, we can ever get a fair start, we will be able to keep it.

Civil and military officials expressed the belief tonight that the reign of violence had been suppressed, but every precaution against a resurgence was maintained.

Members of the mob were under arrest and held to await action by the grand jury, called to meet in the County Jail with machine guns.

Undismayed by an unsuccessful attempt Sunday night to break into the County Jail, another attempt Monday night, when twelve persons were wounded in the fight with deputy sheriffs, the mob formed again last night and persisted in its purpose until the troops' fire had dispersed them.

Whether any of those killed actually were members of the mob was undetermined. At least one of the victims was an errand boy, Hugh Edward McLean of Port Williams, Ont., who stopped to minister to a wounded man lying in the street when a stray bullet struck him.

Other victims were Hal Pifer, 33 years of age, of Ocala, Fla., a former driver for a bus line; Earl McCall, an employee of the Sinclair Oil Company, and W. E. Browning, 48.

Col. L. L. Lowry, commanding the twelve companies of guardsmen here, served cryptic notes today that "our forces will show the lawless element that we are prepared to cope with it."

He said that those who fired on the troops "had murder in their minds," and "the situation may very well intensify because if mobs are not suppressed once for all."

Meanwhile residents were called on by a citizens' committee to remain at home after 9 p. m., as long as trouble threatens.

Levin, who said his best to death Herman Merrell, his wife and three children early Saturday with a hammer because he mistook them for members of another family against whom he harbored a grudge, was taken from Tampa for safekeeping Sunday night, and the mob's wrath apparently was diverted to the officers and guardsmen.

The troops which were called out yesterday were greeted with flying bullets.

They began their honeymoon without the shadow of menace to their happiness and security—but Sergeant Legros, prize bully of the Foreign Legion was the groom.

Now they never go ashore at Marseille.

MARINES IN NEW MOVE

Regiment Sent to Tien-Tsin

Shift to Protect Americans if Chang, Fails to Hold Yellow River

Sending of Japanese Force to Tsingtao Angers All Chinese Factions

SHANGHAI, June 1. (Exclusive)—It was authoritatively learned tonight that the United States transport Henderson is sailing for Tien-tsin tomorrow carrying between 1000 and 1800 marines for the purpose of protecting the Americans in the Peking and Tien-tsin area.

The British plans have not been disclosed, but it is reported that the British will send a complete division to Tien-tsin before the middle of the month, together with a large number of airplanes for use in patrolling the railway between Peking and Tien-tsin.

The British planes, which have been quartered on the Shanghai race course, making daily flights, which have been responsible for constant Chinese protests, were boxed up today and loaded on ships for transport northward.

The Shanghai Times, a local British newspaper, in an apparently independent article, declares that the Japanese and American forces have decided to dispatch an allied force of 10,000 Tien-tsin.

The Chinese organizations continue to agitate against the landing of Japanese troops in Tsingtao, expressing indignation over the fact that Gen. Chang Chung-Chang, Tapan of Shantung Province, is maintaining sympathy on the question, and suggesting his connivance with the Japanese plans.

The French and Shantung forces are abandoning Chang Chow, in Honan Province, and Kauchow, in Kiangsu, following Gen. Chang Tso-Lin's heavy artillery, and he declared Gen. Chang's chief purpose is whether he will be able to get back to his base in Shantung.

The Nationalist officials affiliated with both Hankow and Nanking claim they will be in Peking before August, and announce their intention of calling a national conference in Peking before the national holiday, October 10, for the purpose of effecting unification and forcing a shrewd compromise.

The Shantung general, Sol Voroelovich, Chinese, formerly adviser to Marshal Chiang Kai Shek, but now attached to Hankow, in an interview published here states the Nationalist army is in strength and endurance, and although only equipped with rifles is able to go against Gen. Chang Tso-Lin's heavy artillery.

Gen. C. W. Wu, Foreign Minister of the Republic of China, said in a statement to Baron Tanaka, the Japanese Premier, against the illegality of Japanese troops landing at Tsingtao, that the Chinese government is bound to resist, undoing the Sino-Japanese friendship.

FIVE THOUSAND OF MARINES TO BE SHIPPED

WASHINGTON, June 1. (AP)—Movement of between 4000 and 5000 American marines from Shanghai and the Pacific coast to Tien-tsin, in accordance with an emergency that may arise from the collapse of the Northern Chinese army south of the Yellow River is being carried out in accordance with the arrangements today said.

The force, which consists of more than 5000 marines, which Brig-Gen. Bessley D. Butler, American marine commander in China, has held for four days ago, it was said, but it was definitely known when Gen. Butler sailed with his men from Shanghai.

The only other marines in China are the comparatively small number maintained as a guard for the American Legation at Peking, and these also will be moved, officials said.

It should be deemed advisable, to transfer the legation to a more accessible point for protection purposes in the north.

MAY GUARD PEKING

Either the transfer of the Legation to Tien-tsin or the carrying out of the proposed strengthening of the force at Peking, will be decided by the military government.

The movement of marines has been under consideration for some time in view of the reported flight of the Northern Chinese army from Honan and Anhwei provinces and the consequent danger to American and other foreigners in those regions.

Officials do not foresee any serious trouble such as occurred at Nanking, since few Americans remain in North China. Their concentration at Tien-tsin, it was pointed out, has been proceeding for some weeks.

FOREIGNERS' MOVE IN NORTH EAGERLY AWAITED

PEKING, June 1. (AP)—Chang Tso-Lin's great strategic retreat before the advancing Nationalists has brought two questions to fever heat. Will Chang be able to hold the Yellow River line, and what will the foreign powers do to protect their nationals remaining in Northern China?

America's answer to the second question has not been divulged. It is understood that Minister Macartney has not yet asked for additional

RED FINE, June 1. (Exclusive)—As our old town took its place in line before a service station, a long, low, broad shadow cast by Birch Mountain, towering 14,000 feet above the valley, fell across the village, enveloping it in a cool, pleasant shade; but the sun still shined on the golden glow the huge mountains on the eastern rim of the valley.

The leaves of the tall Lombardy poplars, stirred by a mountain breeze, rustled softly, with a murmur like that of flowing water. Attracted by the double holiday and the panorama of the seven, snow-capped peaks that rise like a cluster of spires on the western skyline, the number of tourists from Southern California exceeded the population of the village.

The last available cot had been taken for the supply of hotel space was far less than the demand. There was a proposal to auction preferred places on the billiard tables of the Bradford Hotel.

But a pall heavier than the shadows from the mountains hung over Red Fine. The fine acquired polish of the valley was being lost. The black or yellow stains, for they had driven on the highway some miles farther south, were being washed away, where the road was flooded from the break in the Aqueduct. There was a marked contrast between the two scenes.

ACT OF VANDALISM

Thursday night three automobiles filled with armed raiders had surprised the Indian guards at Red Name Canyon and dynamited the aqueduct carrying the Aqueduct water, and Friday night raiders had dynamited the penstock leading to Red Fine Power House No. 2.

The raiders, who were seeking the trial of the night raiders, and awakening much grave concern, were a report that a reward of $10,000 had been offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the dynamiters. Another report circulated that the Governor had been appealed to, and that the mobilization of a regiment of State Cavalry had been ordered.

Rumors came fast, carried by the speeding cars on the highway. For the time the village was isolated. It was a Sunday afternoon, and on Sunday afternoon both the telephone office and the telephone exchanges are closed. The people were anxious to know what the newspapers of Los Angeles and San Francisco were saying.

"Big Fine was a good town until it was dynamited," said one of the old-timers.

Over at the service station the attendant, also an old-timer in the valley, was explaining to some customers in a car that carried the name "Shoemaker" below the license plate, what it was all about.

Soviet Chieftain Gives Warning

Commissars' Council Head Declares British Break Prelude to Clash

London Government Flayed Moscow's Steady Policy of Peace Set Forth

MOSCOW, June 1. (AP)—Alexis Rykov, president of the Council of People's Commissars, addressing a plenary session of the Moscow Soviet today, declared that the British rupture with Russia was a prelude to war.

The international situation, therefore, was pregnant with grave complications. The British government, he asserted, wished to improve its position by provoking war, in which it hoped to play a leading part, leaving "the dirty part of the war" to other peoples who, being thereby weakened, would be subordinated to Britain. To this danger the Soviet Union opposed a steady policy of peace.

OTHER POINTS

Other points in the president's long speech were that the British government's charges against the Soviet since 1921 always had been based on forged documents, and that Great Britain had actively engaged in spying on the Soviet republic.

A group of captured spies, who had acted in the British interests, now were in prison. Gen. Rykov cited an asserted letter from the British Consul in Leningrad to the British mission in Moscow and other documents as proof of his allegations. The Soviet, however, had made no such charges, he added, holding that the British did not justify a diplomatic dispute.

NOTES FOR TRADE

The British government's hope that it would be possible to maintain trade relations with the Soviet republic, like the United States, was shattered by the rupture, he declared in conclusion, was most illusory and doomed to disappointment.

An appeal also has been addressed by the central committee of the All-Russian Communist party to all party organizations as proof of his allegations. The Soviet, however, had made no such charges, he added, holding that the British did not justify a diplomatic dispute.

THE appeal also that was may be turned on Russia in spite of its citizens' desire to maintain friendly relations with the party and all others to pay the closest attention to questions concerning the country's strength and defense of the country.

Three Shocks Cause Chimneys to Fall, Buildings to Shake and Alarm Residents

ASBURY PARK (N. J.) June 1. (AP)—Three earth shocks were felt today in a fifty-mile area along the New Jersey coast between Lomsie River and Sandy Hook.

Although the only damage reported was the toppling of chimneys on two buildings in Long Branch, the shocks, accompanied by a rumbling which first led to the belief they were explosions, caused great excitement in every town within the affected area.

The shocks were recorded on the seismograph at Fordham University, New York.

MUCH EXCITEMENT

There were three distinct shocks, the first coming at 7:20 o'clock, eastern standard time. Considerable excitement prevailed in Asbury Park, where the shocks were most severe.

Long Branch, about seven miles north of here, reported one heavy shock at 7:15 o'clock. It sent chimneys on two houses tumbling to the earth. At West Long Branch, three miles away, a heavy marble slab on a front porch was moved.

Coast Guard authorities there reported no unusual action of the sea during the disturbances.

BUILDINGS SHAKEN

Virtually every office building in the city was shaken and in the basement of the Asbury Park Trust, the first shock dislodged the heavy rolls of newspaper.

Great excitement prevailed in the city, residents running from their homes. Newspaper offices and police were swamped by telephone inquiries.

NEW PASADENA FISTIC ARENA OPENS TONIGHT

MORRIS COHAN'S battle royal of heavyweights at the opening of the new Pasadena fistic arena occupies the boxing spotlight tonight when he expects to turn away more people than there are inside the place. Starting out three years ago with a nothing but a boxing ring, Cohan has built up a reputation as one of the nation's most successful promoters. He has been able to satisfy the tastes of his million-dollar patrons as well as that of the general public. He has been able to do this by presenting the best of the sport in an all-heavyweight class, and he is showing this tonight by presenting a battle royal of just two.

His headliners are Neil Gilbey and Mack Hooten. The former is a heavyweight contender and the latter is a contender in the middleweight class. The new arena, with its Spanish tile and its theatrical atmosphere, is as much of an attraction as the fight itself. Everybody likes heavyweights and new buildings.

RABBIT PUNCHES

THIS is the night of nights for Morris Cohan, the fistic promoter of Pasadena, who blushing confesses he is the real boy genius of Southern California. For he knows it, that Morris is opening a brand new arena in the Green City which is to be the center of the fistic world. The new arena, which is located at Fair Oaks and Arlington, represents a new era in the fistic world. It is a building of the future, a building that will be the center of the fistic world. It is a building that will be the center of the fistic world. It is a building that will be the center of the fistic world.

ON THE DOVE OF PEACE

ITALY and France have robbed the nest of the Dove of Peace again, substituting cannon balls for the olive branch. It was trying to hatch.

It also is sitting on some unpromising Chinese eggs.

Nature didn't endow the Dove with a crown, and it won't need one till after it has developed several other improvements.

First of all, it needs eagle eyes. And, olive or not, it must have a strong hand.

But it must cure its back of the business habit.

It must catch worms from other birds, in order to protect 'em, and then gobble 'em itself.

It must trade its olive branch for a stout black and learn to crack the heads of peace-disturbers.

The world peace isn't impossible. If selfish, irritable people can get out of traffic jams without committing murder they can get out of any other jams peacefully—with proper police direction.

Yes, Palestine, nations are made up of people and people are made up of human nature. You can teach 'em to respect each other's rights if you're big enough, have authority and a good club and know how to use 'em.

Latest Mother Goose has been bewildered, so that youngsters may wonder the supposed immortal influence of the earlier versions. This some stupid nursery rhymes should prepare children for the world into which they are growing. What Mother Goose needs is not demoralizing, but revitalizing, somewhat as follows:

Jack and Jill went to the mill
To have a quart of milk.
Jack found one, but Jill was lost
And so the last full mill.

Highly-splendid, many chicks,
Cuddled the man and grubbed the chick.
He stayed still, but hatched three;
Her touch made her nest decay.

Old Mother Hubbard went to the cupboard
To shake up a couple of cats.
When she got there the cupboard was bare—
Her doggie had been in.

CHUCKLES from LIFE

Bedtime Story

Once upon a time there was a censor who had succeeded in having laws passed prohibiting everything, as a result of which everyone was in jail. So the censor wandered around forlornly over the earth, the most miserable of creatures. With everybody in jail, no more laws could be broken and he was denied the satisfaction of punishing people. He was about to commit suicide, when a bright idea came to him. He hurriedly got a law passed prohibiting the keeping of people in jail. In a short time all the jails were emptied, the censor rolled up his sleeve, and, with joy in his heart, set happily to work having people arrested, convicted and imprisoned.

Futility

I'd like, when all my friends begin
To lie about their cars like sin,
And tell me how they never try
To take the hills except on high;
And how they make the auto posts
Like picket fences by the way—
I say To like at that same time
To tell them what a car is mine:
But—
Oh, Lord,
Mine's a Ford!

BAPTISTS GAIN AMONG INDIANS

Pastor-Redmen in Council Report Converts

Former Medicine Man Now Ordained Minister

Policy in Mexico Denounced Before Convention

CHICAGO, June 1. (AP)—Their halibut tongues of the "pale face," their language that of the Christian American, Indian religious leaders at a convention here today told the Northern Baptist Convention of the progress of the white man's religion among the brown-skinned brethren of the West and Southwest reservations.

These Indian leaders all are Baptist ministers and missionaries among the Chickasaw, the Crow, Hopi, Kiowa, Apache, Arapaho, Comanche, Cheyenne and several other tribes.

Among the group was John Frost, a Crow from Montana and the first of the tribe to be commissioned a Baptist minister. He once was a "medicine man." Later he was a "United States Army scout and an assistant superintendent of a government school."

Another Indian who told of the Redmen's place in Christianity, was Steve Omevawee, for twenty-five years a Hopi interpreter in Arizona. For years he was an outcast of his tribe because of his adoption of Christianity.

TALKS ON LIBERALS The American government's policies in Mexico and Nicaragua were criticized by Rev. Charles S. Detweiler of New York, superintendent of the Baptist-American work of the home missions.

He defined the liberal movement in Mexico and Nicaragua, which he said was the state department's policy of political and religious liberty.

In Nicaragua, he declared, the American government had not been consistent, supporting a usurping President whom it formerly had refused to recognize.

The convention body, approving a report by the committee on international good will, "expressed the thought of intervention in Mexico."

Detweiler said the committee of States to become a member of the Permanent Court of International Justice, and expressed "the earnest hope that the government would take every practicable step to carry out the spirit and purpose of the resolution concerning our relations with China."

BETTER CLERGY, CRY OF CHURCH

Congregational Council Ends Biennial Session

Many Pastors Said to be Poorly Trained

Work of Peace Organizations Reported On

OMAHA (Nebr.) June 1. (AP)—Fewer and better ministers were suggested to the national council of the Congregational Churches at the closing session of the biennial session today by Rev. J. T. Stocking of Montreal, N. J. "Better have fewer ministers, than ministers unprepared," he said.

Not a few men coming from the country's seminaries today appear apologetically before theological questions propounded by even school boys, he declared.

The seminaries must help prospective church leaders and especially must the men and women who enter this work be able to answer the questions propounded by the youth of the nation.

SHOULD HAVE REASON "There should be a reason for the faith which is within them," he said. "They should know why they believe, that there is a moral principle at the base of the universe."

In line with development of church leaders, Rev. W. Ernest Collins of Topeka, Kan., urged more vacation schools for growing boys and girls. He declared it is not an exaggeration to say that more can be accomplished by the vacation school in four or five weeks than in the average Sunday school in two years.

The reason, he said, lies in the appeal to the parents. In the vacation school, there is a chance for additional education of the children combined with properly supervised play.

PEACE WORK GOES ON Need of funds to carry on the work of the Congregational Foundation for education was placed before the council by George W. Shaw of Tannton, N. D., president of Tannton College. The foundation has aided in building four theological schools, two training schools and four academies during the past biennium, he said, declaring approximately $100,000 had been needed for the coming period.

Disfranchisement following the World War "which we were told was a war to end all wars," he said, "has led toward the formation of nearly 100 organizations working for world peace."

He declared W. B. Smith of New York, chairman of the executive committee of the World Alliance for International Friendship, in an address before the council.

"The thing has never ceased," Smith said. "The war to end war is a failure."

Accountant at Stanford Held as Embezzler

SAN JOSE, June 1. (AP)—Howard R. Oliver, accused of embezzling between $4000 and $5000 while accountant for the Stanford University Athletic Board of Control and the Santa Clara County Jail, will face Justice Rothstein tomorrow.

Oliver was arrested at 4:00 p. m. today at his home in San Francisco, where he was arrested yesterday.

Although Oliver had confessed his embezzlements to Athletic Board members and had been dismissed April 1 when his home in San Francisco was raided, his failure to reimburse his bondmen led to the issuance of a warrant.

Oliver's statement in the San Francisco city papers that he had stolen the funds to pay hospital and doctor bills for his wife, who he said today had died, was not believed.

Oliver told him, when the shortage was revealed by a special audit, that he had no idea what he had done with the money, but he had expressed the belief that Palo Alto real estate speculation beyond Oliver's income was chiefly responsible.

Arthritis Keeps John Drew From Bay City Stage

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1. (AP)—John Drew, veteran actor of the American stage, will jeopardize his life if he attempts to fulfill a theatrical engagement here for the balance of this week, according to his physician, Dr. Lawrence H. Hoffman.

Drew was taken ill last week in Portland, but came here to keep an engagement. He spent several days in the city, his condition being so serious last night that announcement was made that his return to the stage was "impossible."

"He passed a comfortable night," Dr. Hoffman said today. "We are hopeful the improvement will continue, though I believe it is unwise for him to make any effort to appear upon the stage in this city."

"He is 74 years of age and this has added to the severity of his condition," Dr. Hoffman admitted. Drew is scheduled to go to Los Angeles from here.

Western Rates Change Blocked by Commission

WASHINGTON, June 1. (AP)—A revision of live-stock rates between western producing points and the Chicago packing plants, which railroads proposed to make effective today, has been blocked by an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The commission held the proposed revision would result in a substantial increase on more of the traffic affected and ordered western railroads to maintain their present scheduled rates until January 1, pending investigation to determine feasibility of the new rates.

FORMER POSTMASTER SENTENCED IN ARIZONA

TOMBSTONE (Ariz.) June 1. (AP)—T. P. McGinnis, former postmaster at Kellon, Ariz., convicted of receiving stolen property in connection with the activities of the Sullivan gang, today was given a sentence of eighteen months to two years in the State prison at Florence.

McGinnis was charged with receiving stolen property from a band of thieves known as the Sullivan gang which operated throughout Arizona, and police said, throughout Colorado, last month.

Members of the gang now are serving terms in the State prison.

MACDONALD ORDERED TO TAKE MONTH'S REST

LONDON, June 1. (AP)—James Macdonald's doctors have ordered him to abstain from all active political work for a month. The former Labor Premier is still feeling the effects of the illness which confined him to a hospital during his recent visit to the United States and will go to Scotland for a week.

EPISCOPAL BISHOPS IN CONFERENCE

Opening Day Marked by Surprise Resignation of Wyoming Ordinary

NEW YORK, June 1. (AP)—The two-day conference of the house of bishops of the Protestant Episcopal church which opened here today was given a surprise in the unexpected resignation of Rt. Rev. Nathaniel Seymour Thomas, missionary bishop of Wyoming. Previous resignations of two bishops—William Lawrence of Massachusetts and Theodore F. Thurston, missionary bishop of Oklahoma—had resulted in calling the meeting.

Bishop Thomas explained that he was resigning to take up work "nearest my heart," and that if his resignation was accepted he expected to be appointed president of the Philadelphia Divinity School. He added that he hoped to "rejuvenate the theological equipment of the students with modern life."

The conference today adopted two recommendations of the board of foreign missions. The first, on China, was to the effect that there should be no lessening of the missionary work when the way is opened for its continuation. The second, on Mexico, asked the bishops to record their high admiration for the disinterested service rendered by Frank W. Crighton, bishop of Mexico during the troubled conditions prevailing in that republic.

Bishop Crighton, consecrated since the last convention, was presented by their sponsors and welcomed by the presiding bishop, John Gardner Murray of Baltimore.

Bishops Ernest Stiles, of Long Island; Walter Mitchell of Arizona, and Co-Stanton Edward T. Hoptfield of Maryland.

In the morning the bishops attended a communion service at the cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. Among those present was William Montgomery Brown, who resigned as bishop of Arkansas and was deposed at the national convention in New Orleans in 1925 for heresy.

Prisoner Saved From Execution Will Die Friday

JACKSONVILLE (Fla.) June 1. (AP)—Jim Williams, condemned negro, who escaped the electric chair yesterday, will die Friday.

The negro yesterday afternoon escaped death temporarily when no official was present in the death house who would act as executioner. When the negro was strapped in ready for the ordeal when the hitch occurred.

Under the Florida law, the Sheriff of the county in which a man is convicted or one of the Sheriff's deputies must be present to act as executioner. When the negro's death arrived yesterday Sheriff Hancock of Putnam county, where Williams was convicted, was not present.

Warden Hillen of the prison postponed the execution until Friday at the same hour, advising Sheriff Hancock to either be present or to have someone else who was willing to perform the executioner's task.

SHEFFIELD TALE GAINS CREDENCE

State Department Fails to Deny Resignation

Of-Heard Rumor May Hold Truth at Last

Ambassador to Mexico Tired of Constant Clashes

WASHINGTON, June 1. (AP)—State Department officials declined tonight to comment on widely published stories that James H. Sheffield has resigned as American Ambassador to Mexico.

For months similar reports have been in circulation and heretofore they consistently have been denied at the department. Publication of the story today led to persistent inquiries at the department but officials refused to be led into any discussion of what Mr. Sheffield might have done or might intend to do regarding continuance of his service as Ambassador.

When the present controversy over the Mexican oil situation first arose there were many rumors that the Ambassador favored a more drastic American policy than Secretary Kellogg was willing to pursue. Last summer Mr. Sheffield came to this country on leave, however, and after he had conferred with President Coolidge all reports of friction were denied.

Since then the two governments have come to an understanding in the oil negotiations and the controversy has entered on a waiting stage while the Mexican enforcement program is being shaped. In a speech in New York in April President Coolidge predicted a satisfactory solution, but if any new element has materially changed the situation it never has been disclosed.

Mr. Sheffield was appointed Ambassador to Mexico in September, 1924. His tenure there has been troubled almost continuously by clashes of opinion between Washington and Mexico City and there have been indications that he has been personally incensed by the situation. Personal inclinations alone he would return to private life. At the time of his appointment he was practicing law in New York City.

THE TROUPER

By JOHN PETER TOOHEY

"Times" Daily Short Story

THE dingy, musty hall seemed a little cheerier to Tom Johnson as he passed his wife's letter from Buenos Aires, the certain light of the tiny incandescent bulb that hung above the battered old bureau. He wished she had given him a little more notice, but after all, that could hardly have been expected of her. She hadn't really cared anything about him for years.

"You'll probably be surprised to know," the letter ran, "that Millie's got her big chance at last. (Thank God she's got real talent and didn't have to wait a lifetime like you.) And Pinchot, the London revue producer, caught her here at the Majestic Monday night. He was crazy about her work and offered her a part in his new production opening over there in six weeks. He's giving her seventy-five pounds a week, and he's paying my expenses over. She's nearly out of her mind with excitement. Pinchot's got a booking office to cancel the rest of her time and we're sailing Sunday night on the overnighter. We'll get to Buenos Aires at eight o'clock. You'd better meet us at the Grand Central, because Millie wants to see you and say good-by."

He smiled wistfully as he laid the letter down and then he raised his head to brush away a little moisture that had gathered up in his eyes. He was a big fellow at last. No more playing third and fourth shows a week in London, no more a picture of himself as a failed actor, no more a picture of himself as a failed actor, no more a picture of himself as a failed actor.

He sat down on the narrow bed and gazed out of the window toward the east, where the golden light of Broadway was reflected in the night sky. He'd never "made" Broadway himself, but his daughter would conquer it. She'd enjoy all the things he had once pictured himself as enjoying back in those far-off years in the little Ohio town where he had run away from home to join a minstrel show. Disconnected memory pictures of his stage life since then flashed through his mind. He remembered the excitement of his first Broadway show, the excitement of his first Broadway show, the excitement of his first Broadway show.

He remembered the excitement of his first Broadway show, the excitement of his first Broadway show, the excitement of his first Broadway show. He remembered the excitement of his first Broadway show, the excitement of his first Broadway show, the excitement of his first Broadway show.

AIR RACE WON BY VAN ORMAN

E. J. Hill in Second Place and Kepner Third

No Change Expected in Check-up on Balloons

Three Winners Will Enter at Denver This Fall

AKRON (O.) June 1. (AP)—Ward T. Van Orman, who has been considered one of the best pilots in the field of ballooning for some years and his side W. M. W. Morton, seemingly have won another victory with the completion today of the national elimination race that started from here on Monday.

Sailing 715 miles to the sandy beach near Bar Harbor, Maine, Van Orman and Morton won the annual classic preliminary to the international race which will start from Akron on Sunday. The victory was accomplished in the entry of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of Akron.

E. J. HILL SECOND

Second to Van Orman and Morton on the day of the national elimination race were E. J. Hill and his side, E. R. Schlosberg, who brought their entry, the Detroit No. 2, to the ground in 11 hours, 15 minutes, 10 seconds. An unofficial flight record of 603 miles. The third balloon in point of distance covered seemingly was the United States Army No. 1, from Scott Field, Illinois, flown by Capt. William H. Kepner and his side, Louis William C. Harlan. Their distance was 510 miles.

Under the rules of the race, the pilots and sides of the first three balloons in the elimination race will represent America in the international event. Race officials said tonight there is no change of the unofficial line-up of the international contestants being changed by the canvas to be made later by the contest committee of the National Aeronautic Association in Washington. The Detroit No. 2, which came down at Laconia, N. H., after covering 380 miles, was the only other entry that came close to the winners.

WINNER'S NINTH RACE

Van Orman took part in the race this year for the ninth time. It was not until 1924, however, that he crashed into the winning column, but he stuck to it ever since. Since 1924 he has established a record untouchable by any other American pilot. He has won the international race at Antwerp, Belgium.

With him in the victory was "old Mort," one of the survivors of that hardy band of side-show performers who in years past afforded the attention of the general public by ascending in canvas bags inflated with the gas from coal fires. "Old Mort" was a parakeet jumper and before he took to the air he had followed the carnival bands over most of the United States and made more than 500 parachute jumps. Once he did a "parakeet jumper" called a theoretical impossibility, when he flew from Washington Court-house, O., to Appomattox Court-house, Va.

"Old Mort" made the trip by "hedge-hopping" most of the way, which in the language of the balloonists means jumping from hilltop to hilltop, touching ground at each bounce.

WINS THROPHY

By winning the 1927 elimination race Van Orman and Morton bring to Akron permanently the P. M. Litchfield trophy. Van Orman has won it in the last two national races as a representative of Akron.

The final list of all the entries as reported today by race officials was as follows:

United States Army No. 1, Malone, N. Y., 225 miles.
United States Navy No. 3, Mottville, N. Y., 225 miles.
St. Louis Rotary Club, Brockville, Ont., 400 miles.
Detroit Flying Club No. 1, Parkville Station, N. Y., 380 miles.
Detroit Flying Club No. 2, Laconia, N. H., 380 miles.
United States Navy No. 2, Keating, Summit Point, 170 miles.
United States Army No. 1, Cranberry Lake, N. Y., 340 miles.
Detroit Flying Club No. 3, Hidesford, Ma., 610 miles.
United States Army No. 3, Hidesford, Ma., 610 miles.
Detroit Flying Club No. 3, Hidesford, Ma., 610 miles.

NEW INTEREST IN UTILITIES

Pronounced Investment Demand Stimulates Activity in Shares; New Peak Prices Touched

Public utility securities lately have reassured an attraction for investment buyers in the stock market. The activity in these shares is not as pronounced as the spectacular bidding for holding company stocks of a year or so ago, but the movement is broad enough to suggest a definite swing of interest in the direction of this group. Several of the active issues have marked up new high prices in the last few days.

MELLON PLAN SIGNIFICANT

Program to Retire Second Liberty Issue Regarded as Pointing to End of Long Maturities

BY PAUL WILLARD GARNETT

Copyright, 1927, by New York Evening Post, Inc.

NEW YORK, June 1. (Exclusive)—Secretary Mellon's plan to retire $1,697,337,000 of second Liberty 4 1/2 per cent bonds on November 15 through an offer of new long-term 3 1/2 per cent bonds, probably gives to the country its last chance to obtain a distant maturity in the government's refunding program.

OIL NEWS

BY HOWARD C. KEOLEY

The success of the Elbe Oil and Development Company in developing commercial production in the East Mountain district, eight miles east of Bakersfield, is unlikely to result in any general development of that district, in the opinion of oil operators interested in the Round Mountain country. The Elbe Oil and Development Company, which owns the Elbe field, is likely to start any drilling activity on the part of that company.

Cuba Northern Railways Company

(Ferrocarriles del Norte de Cuba)

First Mortgage Gold Bonds

5 1/2% Series of 1942

Dated June 1, 1927

Due June 1, 1942

Principal and interest payable in gold coin of the United States of America, at the head office of the trustee in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York, or at the option of the holder or owner at the Havana Branch of the Trustee, Havana, Cuba, interest being payable without deduction for United States Federal Income Tax up to 2% of such interest.

THE NATIONAL CITY BANK OF NEW YORK, Trustee

Redeemable in whole or in part on the first day of any month on 30 days' previous notice at 100 and interest prior to June 1, 1930; at 102 and interest thereafter prior to June 1, 1933; at 101 and interest thereafter prior to June 1, 1936; at 100 1/2 and interest thereafter prior to June 1, 1939; and at 100 and interest thereafter.

We summarize the following from a letter addressed to us by Colonel J. M. Tarafa, President of the Cuba Northern Railways Company:

The Cuba Northern Railways Company now owns and operates about 233 miles of railroad extending westerly from Puerto Tarafa on Nuevitas Bay, through Moron, to Chamba, with important branches. From Chamba, the railroad is being extended to Santa Clara, at which point the line will connect with the westerly terminus of the Cuba Railroad Company and with the easterly terminus of the United Railways of Havana, the Santa Clara extension will be completed and the line opened for traffic throughout before January 1, 1928. The first mortgage bonds are to be secured by a direct first mortgage on the entire property of the company, except certain rolling stock which is subject to $1,450,000 equipment trust certificates now outstanding. The mortgage will authorize a total of $25,000,000 of bonds, which may be issued in one or more series with such rates of interest, maturity dates, and redemption provisions as may be determined by the board of directors.

The earnings of the Cuba Northern Railways for the past five fiscal years are reported as follows:

YEARS ENDED JUNE 30	1926	1925	1924	1923	1922
TOTAL OPERATING REVENUES	$6,263,083	$5,080,891	$5,243,958	$5,111,798	$5,654,741
OPERATING EXPENSES AND TAXES	2,771,895	3,318,641	3,120,819	2,883,361	2,182,212
GROSS INCOME	2,531,188	2,812,257	2,121,461	2,476,189	1,371,273
FIXED CHARGES	1,104,748	1,127,447	1,085,199	940,364	873,491
NET INCOME	1,426,415	1,684,810	1,103,842	1,535,825	497,782

In the fiscal year 1926, fixed charges were earned 2.29 times, and during the above five-year period an average of 2.23 times annually. As the proceeds of the present financing are largely to be used for refunding of obligations bearing higher interest rates, fixed charges will not be increased. For the 9 months ended March 31, 1927, net income decreased $251,385, compared with the same period in 1926. This decrease was largely due to curtailment of traffic resulting from the limitation of the Cuban sugar crop under governmental decree.

A physical valuation of the properties of the Cuba Northern Railways Company has been made under the direction of Mark W. Potter, Esq., formerly an interstate commerce commissioner. This valuation, which has been made according to the rules that have been enunciated, observed and applied by the Interstate Commerce Commission, and the courts of the United States, is stated to be at least $43,012,833, as of April 30, 1926.

The proceeds of these bonds are to be used to retire $10,000,000 first mortgage 6% bonds, and $2,510,000 second mortgage 7% bonds (both of which issues are being called for payment on July 1, 1927); to repay loans; to defray the cost of construction of the Santa Clara extension; and for other capital additions and betterments.

Practically all of the $14,000,000 capital stock of the Cuba Northern Railways Company is owned by the Consolidated Railroads of Cuba, which also owns all the 500,000 shares capital stock of the Cuba Railroad Company.

We offer these bonds, if, and when issued to and received by us, and subject to the approval of all legal proceedings in connection therewith. It is expected that delivery in the first instance will be made on or about June 10, 1927, in the form of interim certificates.

Application will be made to list these bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

The church is the most dangerous institution in society," and Dr. Caruthers stated that the two objectives of the society are the removal of all clergy in the next generation and to teach that all happiness is in this life, for there is no other.

MAGAZINE READ
Dr. Carruthers read from the magazine which, he said, is the organ of this society in California, published in Hawthorne, sixteen pages each month, an article written by a 17-year-old girl, whose name he said he would not give, although it was published and before him. She wrote: "Gods are like gowns, in style to-day and out tomorrow. All of us must state our creed thus: 'Arrogance, lust, rapine, lies—this is the only book of God;' and another contributor, a college student, stated in this youthful magazine: "I believe life is entirely without meaning except to the individual herself." Other even more extreme and sacrilegious statements were read from the magazine by the speaker.

Dr. Carrington came on Calaveras, Hebrews, Christian Scientists and Protestants alike to fight what he called the worst foe America has ever faced. To conserve the spiritual life of childhood and youth in California, he asked the organization to take it up as a crusade.

KEYNOTE SOUNDED

nor give greater counsel to our children than those already written in the old, old book.

"From you, the mother, your very tiny daughter builds up her concept of motherhood. Mother means comfort, attractiveness, irritation, prohibitions, and a large variety of emodonal killings. These and many others form the mother pattern. The boy builds up the concept of fatherhood. He means authority, sometimes; absence from home, too often; comradeship that too often leans down and is not on the level; many things.

CHILDREN WILL VISIT NEW SHIP

City of Honolulu to Start First Trip Saturday

KHJ Entertainers Will Go on Dedictory Voyage

Blanca Flor Serenaders in Initial Appearance

BY DR. RALPH L. POWERS
When the new City of Honolulu goes under way Saturday noon on its dedicatory trip to the Hawaiian Islands, the children of KHJ will have an opportunity of seeing the gigantic white ocean palace leave Wilmington Harbor.

The youngsters who have taken part more or less regularly on the children's hour programs from The Times, broadcast station will have a chance to go as guests of The Times. A special bus will leave the building at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

Reservations must be made through the KHJ office not later than 12 o'clock on Friday and each child will be limited to one escort for the bus accommodations are not flexible and the motor land craft can only hold a certain number.

At approximately 10:30 at the harbor there will be a gala occasion on the deck and aboard ship. There will be an impromptu reception on the gleaming white steamship until the going chimes at 11:30. That is a full hour before sailing time and all visitors must leave promptly at that time.

LATEST IN BOATS
Originally the vocalist of the KHJ group was Fayetta Munroe. A wife received on Memorial Day, however, from the university town of Lawrence, Kan., disclosed the fact that the vocalist is now Mrs. Fayetta Munroe Hastings and the change in name called for a change in her contemplated part of the Honolulu trip.

The personnel of the KHJ entertainment group which will leave Saturday morning includes Fayetta Hastings, Mrs. O. Mine, the KHJ Concert Trio, Mrs. Chas. L. Davis and Helen Davis and Ruth Pitt, coloratura soprano.

Friends of KHJ by the hundreds will make the pilgrimage to Wilmington, in time to bid her voyage to the Hawaiian Islands. The group will leave on a new ocean liner which is a floating palace and the latest work in marine architecture and decoration.

The last Wednesday midweek broadcast for the school children of the city and vicinity was on the air at KHJ yesterday with a stirring message delivered by Burr McIntosh, the cheerful philosopher, in his usual vigorous and hearty style.

CREAMERY REFORM
The child hour radio broadcast brought Patricia Randolph Eccleson, "Daffodil," in a story of what happened to her when she was a child. Patricia, a student at the University of California, Berkeley, is a native of the city of Berkeley, Cal. She is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and is a member of the Beta Beta Beta Biological Society.

violin leader, is one of the most beautiful and accomplished dancers on the stage today and many radio listeners have seen her performance on big-time vaudeville circuits.

MR. HILL APPEARS
The Serenaders offered a melodious of many climes as well as popular tunes of the day and Uncle Remus, of radio fame, dropped into the studio to help on the night's program.

Remus has never wandered far from Los Angeles but the tinkling music of Latin-America had the curious effect of wanting him to seek down there this summer.

The 9 o'clock broadcast hour returned to radioland Arthur Raymond Hill, who used to be a popular entertainer from KHJ during a period of nearly three years, when he appeared on Monday and evening programs. Mr. Hill's return to the Three program was marked with three pleasing groups of tenor solos in melodious vein.

James Fure, "ello virtuosus played three Popper numbers and also one of his own arrangements of a popular whistling number, while Marika de Kersfort, concert pianist, played Josthove's first Sonata. An hour's program of dance music by the Los Angeles Railway Orchestra completed the evening's broadcast.

HOSPITAL MEN TELL PROGRESS

Western Association Meeting Marks Advance

Standardization of Service Adds to Efficiency

Speaker Stresses Importance of Dietitian's Work

One person in every ten in the United States goes to a hospital each year, Dr. Malcolm S. MacEachern of Chicago, director of hospital activities for the American College of Surgeons, declared yesterday at the Western Hospital Association's annual session at the Ambassador Auditorium.

"Due to the increased efficiency of medicine and hospital administration, the average stay in a hospital for a patient has been cut from seven or eight days to three or four," Dr. MacEachern said. "Because of this same improvement, the hospital death rate has been cut from between fifty and sixty per thousand persons to from thirty to forty persons per thousand."

Three million dollars a day is required to operate the hospitals of America, Dr. MacEachern said. There are 8000 hospitals in America in which there are 750,000 patients, he declared.

ALL STANDARDIZED
The standardization of hospitals, which took place in 1918 and which makes it obligatory on the part of hospitals to maintain a certain ethical standard of practice, was declared by Dr. MacEachern to be the greatest advance made to date in hospitalization.

"The standardization keeps everything that goes on in the hospital open and above board and has caused physicians and surgeons to sterilize care in their work and strive for greater efficiency, for the records of their work are subject to inspection by a representative of the American College of Surgeons at any time," said Dr. MacEachern.

The prediction that great hotels and restaurants will be particularly like the hospital, employ a dietitian to work out balanced meals to offset the damage people do their stomachs by eating the wrong foods was made by Dr. MacEachern in speaking to a special group of those interested in hospital dietetics and the importance of the dietitian to the hospital from the standpoint of economy, as well as the importance of the dietitian in the management of his or her own department.

Miss Edith L. Hill, head of the department of home economy at the University of Washington, addressing the same group of dietitians, made a plea for a high standard of education for the dietitian. She urged graduate dietitians for hospital work.

LABOR LOST
In opening the dietetic session, which was a joint one participated in by the State Dietetic Association and the Western Hospital Association, Wallace F. Vail, president of the Western Hospital Association, declared that one of the most important problems of the hospital today is the shortage of dietitians. He said that the hospital is a place where the patient is kept in a state of perfect health and that the dietitian is the person who is responsible for the patient's health.

At a meeting called for 7 o'clock Dr. MacEachern presided over the session. Dr. Charles D. Lockwood presided.

ROCK AIMED AT DOG HITS STORE FRONT
PASADENA, June 1.—The next time the howl of a dog disturbs the slumbers of E. F. Carlson, 38 North Michigan avenue, he'll throw a sponge at the offending animal.

Early this morning a howling dog, so distressed Carlson that he leaped from his bed and hurled a rock in the canine's direction. The missile broke a large plate-glass window in a store across the street.

JUST TOOK IT, BOY SAYS OF STOLEN CAR
PORTERVILLE, June 1.—"I just took it," was the casual explanation given by Jack Brandon, 16 years of age, when arrested here by local officers with an Essex coach in his possession, alleged to be the property of a woman in Fresno.

The youth is said to have stolen the car at Roseville, beyond Sacramento. He is being held for the Sheriff of Fresno county, a deputy from there now being en route to Porterville to take him into custody.

CUPID SETS MARK AT SANTA ANA AGAIN
SANTA ANA, June 1.—Marriage license records for Orange county which have been broken regularly each month for many years, almost, without exception, maintained another fracture when May established a mark of 461 licenses issued. This is a May record as usual, but does not approach the record of 525 set by June last year, as shown by the books of County Clerk J. M. Backs.

MEMBERSHIP INCREASED
OWENSMOUTH, June 1.—Almost 100 new members have been added to the Owensmouth Chamber of Commerce since a result of the drive that has just closed. Wilbur Price and coworkers obtained eighty-five and the division captained by Lynford R. Ross, thirteen. The local chamber is one of the most active and efficient in the San Fernando Valley area.

LOIS MORAN TO STAR WITH FOX

Quits Bread-and-Butter Roles to Be Modern Flapper; Vilma Banky and Rod La Roque to Wed Soon; Duncans to Film Story of Immigrants

BY GRACE KINGSLLEY
Winifred N. Sheehan, vice-president of Fox Films in New York, yesterday announced the addition of Lois Moran to the constantly growing list of stars who will be presented to the public by that company's next season.

Miss Moran has been signed to a long-term contract to play exclusively in Fox pictures. With the signing of this young actress, Fox will have under contract nine of the most beautiful and gifted cinema luminaries who will grace the screens of Broadway, including that of the celebrated Romy Theatre and those of the world at large, in 1928. The others are Margie Bellamy, Janet Gaynor, Olive Borden, Sally Phipps, Marjorie Beebe, Virginia Valli, Mary Duncan and Greta Garbo.

The newest star will begin work on her first picture of the season at Fox Films West Coast studios about July 15, according to Mr. Sheehan's announcement. It will be made under the direction of Dr. Ludwig Berger, noted European director, whose picture, "The Walls of Vienna," captured this country last season. The story will be "I Don't Want to Marry," and is an adaptation of the novel by Helene Nitz, a Hungarian success by Bela Gaumes.

One of the most important phases of Miss Moran's affiliation with Fox Films is that her screen personality will be transformed completely. No longer will she appear in sweet innocent roles, but rather as the up-to-date viragoes, spirited moderns. The transformation actually will be brought about by the camera in "I Don't Want to Marry," when she will have her hair bobbed for the first time on the screen.

Ludwig Berger, who will direct Miss Moran's first picture under her contract, is regarded as one of the most modern directors of modern drama in Europe. He is a graduate of Heidelberg university and has a reputation of being a noted musician, a master of the cello.

Miss Moran, who had expected to sail for Europe Thursday, to attend the May Week festivities at Cambridge University, England, changed her plans with the signing of her contract with Fox. She is expected to sail for Europe in the near future.

TRIO HELD AS PARKED CAR BANDITS

Fourth Member of Gang Turned Over to Care of Juvenile Court

Three youths yesterday were ordered held to Superior Court by Municipal Judge Blake for trial on robbery charges while a fourth was committed to the juvenile court when it was found he was only 17 years of age.

All four are accused by police of constituting the gang of "pocket-party bandits" which, according to police reports, has been robbing motorists along Mulholland Drive for several months.

Two of the boys, Otto Becker, 20, and Bruce Smith, were held to answer on ten counts of robbery, two counts each of grand larceny and driving automobiles without the owner's consent. Becker was held on an additional charge of assault with intent to commit murder, based on the alleged attack by the youth on Detective Lieutenant Page. Judge Blake fixed bail at $15,000 each.

Leslie Kennedy, 20, said to be a member of the gang, was held on one robbery charge and bond for him was fixed at $15,000, while William Osborne, 17, was committed to juvenile court.

According to Dep. Dist. Atty. Crutcher, the night of the 19th inst., after being halted in flight by shot fired by Detectives Page and Black, the youths were trapped when they were decamped to a parked machine on Mulholland Drive in which Detective Lieutenant Dwight and his wife were sitting. Mr. Crutcher said.

Becker received severe wounds from the gunshot, while the other two were less seriously injured, according to testimony.

PATHE CONVENTION OPENS

More Than Hundred Executives Here to Discuss New Films Under Merger Plan

Feature pictures which the new Pathe and Producers Distributing Corporation merger plan to produce in the next twelve months are to be discussed at a sales convention at the Ambassador beginning this morning and continuing through Saturday.

More than 100 of the executives and sales heads of the various organizations in the new combine arrived in Los Angeles early yesterday morning and were met at the train by studio executives, stars and a brass band and were escorted to the convention headquarters.

After luncheon the delegates were taken on a tour of the De Mille, Metro-Goldwyn and MGM studios, where they saw picture sets that are to be featured in the making.

Rimor Pearson, vice-president and general manager of Pathe Exchange, Inc., headed the Pathe delegation and John C. Finner, vice-president and general manager of the Producers Distributing Corporation, led that group.

REFUSES STRETCHER

Plinn beat a couple of stretcher bearers out of a little chore at the Santa Fe depot yesterday morning when he was taken to the hospital and declined to ride to the Ambassador in an ambulance.

The ambulance was on hand because information had been received at the Cecil De Mille studios that Mr. Plinn had been taken seriously ill on the train en route to the convention of the De Mille producing and distributing forces.

Although pale and shaky when he got off the train, Mr. Plinn gave the uniformed stretcher bearers a smile instead of a job and told them he would walk.

He was hurried to his quarters in the Ambassador, along with Mrs. Plinn, and there put to bed. It was said that he is suffering from a stomach ailment and would be on his feet again in a few days.

JETTA GOUDAL RETURNS

The convention opens officially this morning and important business sessions, including discussion of the budget to be spent on productions and the pictures to be made with that money in the next year, are scheduled to occupy the delegates' time the next three days.

Last night the visitors were entertained at a formal dinner at the Ambassador. Tonight they will be guests of Cecil B. De Mille at Grauman's Chinese.

De Mille, who is expected to give a formal banquet at the Ambassador with executives, delegates, stars and studio heads present. Barrett C. Kiesel will be toastmaster and important announcements as to policies and plans of the newly formed organization are to be made at this affair.

Because of important business conferences following the meeting of De Mille, Pathe, Producers Distributing, Keith-Albee, Orpheum, B. B. Moss and allied theatrical organizations, J. Murdoch, president of the new affiliation, and Pat Casey, his assistant, were unable to come to Los Angeles for the convention.

Among the important Pathe executives present were J. E. Story, assistant general manager, E. A. Rothmann, P.D.C. and J. Morgan and Arthur O. Whyte were among the prominent officials on Plinn's staff.

Cecil De Mille was accompanied by Mrs. De Mille, Jetta Goudal, who had been in New York to attend the premiere of "Pagan Love" at the Roca Theater, also returned on the special.

DEATH END OF PLAYER'S RUN O' LUCK

Murder Trial Witnesses Tell of Victim's Winning Streak Before Assault

With the opening of the trial yesterday in Superior Judge Burnett's court of the murder of John Eggy by William H. Green, 5431 Virginia avenue, the trial was reported, witnesses told of the unusual streak of luck the deceased had enjoyed in different games.

The trial began with the story by Miss Maybelle Brown, 5435 Santa Monica Boulevard, of her discovery of Eggy's body, after having seen a dark form lean over the body and then flee up an alley back of her apartment.

Witnesses who will be called to testify informed the District Attorney's office that Eggy and White, who are reported to be motion-picture stars, had attended poker parties twice, the last time being at the home of William H. Green, 5431 Virginia avenue.

At that time, it was reported, Eggy came out winner, and at the last game left the place $150 ahead. White, who had lost, left shortly afterward, it was asserted.

Miss Brown said when she saw the man run away from the prostrate form, she screamed and awakened Michael English, who lives near by. Eggy's body was found, the headless man in with heavy instruments.

The defendant's wife and 4-year-old daughter attended the trial, which will be resumed today.

CRACKERS IN SOUP UPSET THEIR BARK

Husband Thinks Marital Ship Might Have Sailed on Had Bride Not Chided Him

December and June might have lived together happily ever after, except that the bridegroom persisted in breaking crackers into his soup, it developed yesterday when James C. Skiff, 73 years of age, filed a complaint asking that his marriage to Madeline Skiff, 26, be annulled.

Skiff maintains that the breaking of crackers into soup was no sufficient cause for the annulment, but that he had been chided by Mrs. Skiff.

The marriage was his idea, anyway, Skiff testified. She talked him into it, he said.

His plan for annulment is in the form of a cross-complaint to a civil suit for maintenance filed by Mrs. Skiff, wherein she relates that she was abandoned two months and two days after the wedding.

In temporary alimony proceedings Skiff declared he owns no property, having given away everything to avoid the burden of supporting her.

British Autos Getting Market in New Zealand

British-made automobiles are cutting in on the market in New Zealand and Australia that heretofore has been held virtually exclusively by American cars because the people there feel that America has not been showing a spirit of reciprocity, James Robertson, Auckland, N. Z., said yesterday at the Billmore.

Mr. Robertson sells California gasoline in New Zealand and has just arrived here for his first visit to America.

"Wool, fax and gum from which various products are made are New Zealand products which America imports but we feel that you should buy more of our dairy products," Mr. Robertson said. "There should be a close business relationship between your Pacific Coast and New Zealand."

Mr. Robertson also complained of the rigorous inspection by immigration officers when he entered the United States. The inspectors were polite, he said, but he was forced to stand in line for five hours. He struck Mr. Robertson as unnecessarily aggravating.

Auto Collision Death Case Goes to Jurors Today

Arguments to the jury were completed late yesterday and it was stated by Judge Craig that the case of the twelve men and women this morning.

Does illness keep you from your work?

A GIRL who earns her living—whether in store, office, factory or home—realizes the necessity of regular attendance at her place of employment. For this reason she works on day after day. When she becomes tired out and run-down, she feels that she must keep at her work without taking time to rest.

OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 732 The United States and Napoleon III. by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

DURING HIS BRIEF REIGN AS EMPEROR OF MEXICO, MAXIMILIAN, THE FORMER AUSTRIAN ARCH-DUKE, WAS CONTINUALLY AT WAR WITH HIS ADOPTED SUBJECTS. WITH THE AID OF FRENCH TROOPS HE SUCCEEDED IN SUBDUING, THOUGH NOT PACIFYING, TWO-THIRDS OF THE COUNTRY.

IN THE SPRING OF 1865 THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR ENDED, AND SECRETARY OF STATE SEWARD NOTIFIED THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT THAT ITS INVASION OF MEXICO WAS A VIOLATION OF THE MONROE DOCTRINE, AND DEMANDED THE IMMEDIATE REMOVAL OF THE FRENCH TROOPS.

NAPOLÉON III PROMISED TO WITHDRAW HIS SOLDIERS, BUT DID NOTHING ABOUT IT. THE UNITED STATES THEN SENT GENERAL "PHIL" SHERIDAN, WITH AN ARMY, TO THE RIO GRANDE TO BE READY IF NEEDED.

EARLY IN 1867, WAR CLOUDS WERE GATHERING IN EUROPE, AND NAPOLÉON III FOUND IT NECESSARY TO HAVE ALL HIS SOLDIERS AT HOME. THE FRENCH TROOPS WERE WITHDRAWN FROM MEXICO, FEBRUARY, 1867, AND MAXIMILIAN WAS LEFT TO HIS FATE.

TRIAL MUST WAIT ACCUS

If Municipal Judge Stafford and his jury panel hear the details of a liquor party which ended in the arrest of Marie Mayo, pretty actress, within the next three weeks, court will have to be taken to Seattle.

At least that was the situation outlined yesterday when Judge Stafford learned that the actress and her mistress is charged with possession of liquor in her home at 428 North Normandie avenue. Miss Mayo is in Seattle appearing in a show, and it was declared, she will remain there until her engagement is ended. Liquor case or no liquor case.

"I'm really sorry I can't attend my trial," she wrote, "but my duty calls." Me here, and I am sure you will be nice enough not to find me guilty when I cannot appear in court.

I will be glad to appear here when I return to the city, and not guilty of the charge.

The letter, which was received from Clark Kenrich Holiday, admitted the fact that "Tom" Mayo's pet dog and a cousin in the action, is also in the act of not appearing professionally. City Attorney Matherly, the actress' lawyer, said several weeks ago when he investigated reports of a show in Seattle. "Let them go," he said. "The point of liquor was found, but no stated, evidence of much intoxicating beverage was found."

Judge Stafford continued the case until the actress returns from her engagement and to Los Angeles. She is at Hollywood.

Believed to have been the victim of heart disease, Dr. R. E. Rectenwald, 42 years of age, was found dead in his study in his home on J. N. Baker avenue, Bell, yesterday afternoon by L. Kelly, a friend, who called on the office residence for a friendly visit.

According to Deputy Sheriff Copson, Hutchinson, and Amstein who initiated the autopsy, no marks of violence could be found upon the victim. Officers last night were endeavoring to find the address of Dr. Rectenwald's wife, from whom he had separated, or other relatives.
